TIMBER CONSTRUCTION DAYS

PARTICIPATION OF COLLEAGUES AND SALES NETWORK

To participate in the training days and the event, individual registration via the form is required.

Registration must be completed by February 17. Those who register will receive an automatic reply and then the information about reservations.

HOW TO INVITE CUSTOMERS

The event will be a great opportunity to showcase SCM's strength and productive investment in systems for timber construction, on which we expect a large and interested participation.

The invitation will be in Italian, English, French, German and Spanish and will be distributed through:

- invitation newsletter sent to all Building Construction accounts/contacts registered in our CRM;
- social media and web advertising.

Registration is also necessary for customers, through a special form, the link for which will be included on the invitation.

After submitting the form, the customer will receive an automatic reply and then information on hospitality and reservations.

HOSPITALITY AND RESERVATIONS

Overnight accommodation in hotels paid for by SCM is only for customers (max. 2 people per company):

- guests coming from Italy (distances over 300 km): one night in a hotel;
- guests from EU countries: two nights in a hotel;
- guests from non-EU countries: three nights in a hotel.

The organising staff will be available to support bookings, which will be at your charge but at SCM convention prices.

For further information, please send an e-mail to: scmtimberconstruction@scmgroup.com

The SCM team looks forward to welcoming you in Sinalunga with many innovations to face the winning challenges of eco-sustainable construction together. Attending is essential to maintain our role as a reference point for customers in a context of continuous change. Don't miss it!
